Assistance Program Guidelines

The Pride of Whitehall's mission is to enhance the quality of life for residents of the Whitehall area, increase pride within the community and support projects that help make the Whitehall area a better place to work, live and raise a family. The Pride of Whitehall is a federally recognized non-profit, 501c3 organization.

- The Pride of Whitehall provides financial support for Whitehall seniors and low-income homeowners needing assistance for minor home repairs and emergencies.
- Those at 150 percent or less of the federal poverty guidelines will be considered for assistance. An example would be a family of one who makes less than $17,655 annually or a family of two who makes less than $23,895 annually.*
- Examples of minor home repair and emergency projects the Pride has assisted in include heating and cooling repairs, plumbing and handicap accessibility work.
- Residents are only eligible to receive assistance from the Pride of Whitehall one time in a 12-month period.

*Assistance requests are considered and granted at the discretion of the Pride of Whitehall board.
